

ANIMAL MAGIC TIMES

THE NEWS IS HERE.

The hot weather continues, as it leads on into the summer holidays, drying out more and more earth where animals graze. As the animals have been left in such bad conditions, shops selling paddling pools have practically sold out, or prices have been raised, knowing soon their stores will be empty.

After the horse meat factory closed down, more and more horses are being left out in fields with no access to fresh water.

